Spanning two floors and 235 m² of thoughtfully designed living space, this villa is built for sociable, modern living. Open-plan interiors flow effortlessly into the outdoors, while the private pool sets the stage for long, sun-soaked afternoons. The real showstopper, though, is the view: a sweeping 180-degree panorama that takes in the mountains and stretches all the way to the sea. This is a home where the pace naturally slows, the air feels a little softer, and everyday life simply flows.

Set in the sought-after Monte Solana area of Pedreguer, the villa enjoys a peaceful, elevated position while still being within easy reach of everyday conveniences and the wider Costa
